

Our Sensory Room -

This special room is beneficial for Children at the beginning of the Autumn Term as a settling tool. This room is particularly used for children with autism and sensory processing difficulties. An additional space children can use with an adult as part of their day. The sensory room provides structure to their day, a positive calm space, where there is low arousal and prevents the children becoming over stimulated plus supporting their concentration.