The Cottage

Role Play - you can dress up, have a tea party, play cafés or be your favourite story character!

Floor Toys

You can play with trains, animals, dolls, cars, construction, and more.

Book Corner

There are lots of books to look at, and you can borrow a book to take home to read.

Messy Play

You can play with sand, water, playdough, Gelli Baff, clay, foam, cornflour.

Technology

You can use the programmable toys.

Quiet Areas

The Egg Chair and reading area are quiet spaces in Pre-School.

Loose Parts

You can make arrangements or patterns with loose parts or have fun sorting them.

Mathematics

There are lots of things to sort, measure, weigh, build with, count, as well as puzzles and games.

Mark-Making

Comes in many forms

Literacy

Rhymes, stories, phonics activities, rhyming, keeping the beat.

Communication

Sharing thoughts, ideas, knowledge and understanding. Conveying wants and needs. Listening and being heard.

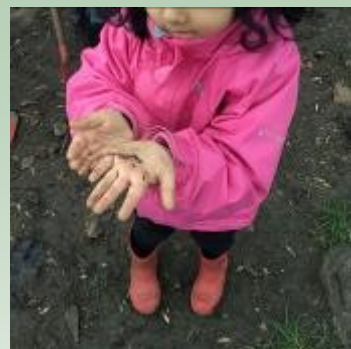

Outside

We have our own separate garden but can also use the nursery garden

You can play in the sand, dig, balance along the wooden trail, plant & grow your own flowers/vegetables, explore the water play.

You can sing and dance on the stage, make mud pies or search for worms and bugs in the mud kitchen, look at books in the story area, explore the loose parts.
